1. As [] visited me in MEA-1600, dated 23 January 1961, ZAGANIS files contain extensive references of the wartime activities of Siegfried SIEBEL, chief of operations of Kaderstelle XI and Oct in 1944-45. May we call your attention to [] list of pertinent documents on SIEBEL, which are believed to be on file in Karlsruhe. You will find a P.M. on SIEBEL under ME-000-006, dated 8 August 1945. Please advise me if this material is not available.

2. The following are selective notes on Mail DEPLISHE; brief wartime references are not included:

ME-227 dated 11 March 1944

A summary of the selected biography notes of Mail DEPLISHE: DEPLISHE was born 22 April 1917 in Istanbul, the son of an Austrian merchant, Johann DEPLISHE and Anna HIRSCHFELD. He was educated in Turkey. In 1938 he was called up for military service and volunteered for duty with the Waffen S.S. During the early part of the war, he was an officer candidate. In 1940 he was sent to Berlin to the SS Frachgruppenamt and because of his knowledge of Turkish was assigned by Oberfuehrer to Art VI. In June 1942 DEPLISHE was sent to the German Consulate General in Istanbul where he was subordinated to Major BOYDIEK. In June 1943 JAMES TERRY arrived in Istanbul to take charge of Art VI activities and DEPLISHE was directed to act as his front.

DEPLISHE was interned in Turkey with other Consulate employees in November 1944. In January 1946 he was arrested and held in connection with the case of Major TALBOT, a British Army deserter who had claimed that DEPLISHE had invited him to safety. He was subsequently released when the Turkish I.O. intervened on his behalf.

DEPLISHE married Gertrud SIEBEL in 1940; they have two children.
